An English surgeon has discovered that people who use smoking chairs the most get deaf the soonest. The surgeon will confer a great blessing on humanity by giving us a cure for baldness.

Canada has been asked to grant $200,000 for fifty years in aid of the proposed railway connecting Prince Edward's Island with the mainland, the first cost being estimated at $5,000,000. The tunnel is to be eight miles long.

A movement has been inaugurated in Ohio looking toward the construction by the United States government of a ship canal connecting Lake Erie with the Ohio river. This is looked upon as antagonistic to the project for a ship-canal connection between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi River.

When the editor of the New York Star accused President Cleveland of plagiarizing from the American Cyclopaedia in his Indianapolis speech, there was more in it than people generally thought. The editor of the Star was the editor of the work in question, and quoted the extracts put in quotation marks and credited to him.

It is said there is a strong feeling among the Knights of Labor, now in session in Minneapolis, that the condemned anarchists should be let alone, and while there is little doubt that a resolution protesting against the death sentence being carried out will be introduced, it is not at all likely it will pass, but will be tabled.

The Canadian Fishery department will next month send a car-load of live lobsters to the Pacific coast, where an effort will be made to propagate them. As nature is never without reason, adverse to the development of life where there is sustenance for it, the Canadian officials may soon learn that their transplanted crustacea have succumbed to the conditions that have militated against their natural development.

A historic sword which has lain in a bank vault in Washington for more than thirty years, is soon to be sold at auction. The sword is handsomely ornamented and contains over $600 worth of gold. It bears the inscription: "Presented by the State of Virginia to Charles Wangh Morgan, in honor of his intrepidity and valor as a lieutenant of the United States Frigate 'Constitution' at the capture of the British frigates 'Guerriere' and 'Java' on the 19th of August, 1812, and the 29th of December, 1813." The present owner of the sword, a son of the recipient, now resides in England, and has ordered that the relic be sold.

Master Workman Powderly: I am also called a crank on the temperance question. I may be a crank on this question, but I am not ashamed to say that I would far rather see a man a sinner than a drunkard. It is better to educate our children to be temperate than to be drunkards. There is not a man living who will say that it is right to bring into homes that which makes the head of a family. There are those who have threatened to leave the order because of my position on this question. I say to all who would withdraw for such a cause, 'Go.' I'll trust the fate of this nation with sober men and women. I'll never take back one word of what I have said on the temperance question, so help me God.

A corpse sixty feet from the earth, hanging in a nest of wires, the arms and legs moving perceptibly, like Jack-on-a-string, was the ghastly sight which greeted people at 10 o'clock Tuesday night at the corner of Woodward avenue and the Campus Martius, Detroit, Mich. The discoverer of this shocking sight happened to be a man with a fire-alarm box key, and he called the department ladders were erected, but all fell short of reaching the dead man. Finally he was got down with an extension ladder. He had been dead some time, and his body during the time he hung there had passed the electric current of the entire Bruen system, which had made the limbs move as if convulsively. Thus perished Lineman Hiram Corlies. Nobody knows how long he had hung on the wires when discovered.

Dr. Joseph Parker, of the City Temple, London, delivered a eulogy at the Brooklyn Academy of Music Tuesday night, on the late Henry Ward Beecher. The audience was large and brilliant. Dr. Parker spoke in eloquent terms of the great preacher's life. Henry Ward Beecher, he said, would not have been possible in Europe; there was needed the breadth and liberty of American conditions to afford his genius scope. Mr. Beecher's childhood, youth, and later manhood, were successively touched upon, with special reference to what the deceased performed for the North in England during the civil war. Dr. Parker summed up his oration in the following words: "Could his compatriots know what Beecher did for America, no marble in Carrara would be big enough for them to carve. That heroic bust—classical in its artistic eye—might fill the proudest niche in the proudest temple of his country."

"According to the latest estimates," says the St. James Gazette, "the land on the surface of the globe has an area of about 53,000,000 square miles, and supports a population of 1,400,000,000 souls. It is interesting to reflect that there is a reasonable probability that, before many years shall have elapsed, nearly one-third of the world's superfluous, and considerably more than one quarter of the world's population, will be ruled by the direct descendants of the royal couple who are now entertaining a family party at Copenhagen. King Christian, of Denmark, is at present sovereign of about 90,000 square miles of territory, and more than 2,000,000 people; his eldest daughter's mother-in-law, Queen Victoria, has an empire of nearly 8,500,000 square miles, with about 365,000,000 inhabitants; his son-in-law, the czar, is lord of some 8,000,000 square miles of territory, and about 108,000,000 people; and his son, the king of the Hellenes, rules dominions extending to about 25,000 square miles, with 2,000,000 inhabitants. It is well within the bounds of possibility that in the future, while King Albert Victor reigns over Great Britain, Nicholas will be czar of Russia, Frederick will be king of Denmark, and Constantine will be king of the Hellenes; for princes bearing these names, and all grandchildren of King Christian IX, will some day, in the ordinary course of events, succeed directly or indirectly to the sovereigns who now occupy the thrones of the four monarchies in question."

When General John M. Palmer, of Springfield, was asked if he would go to St. Louis or Chicago to see the president, he replied that he did not feel quite like forgiving the president for not stopping at Springfield, and he would not go. In his opinion it was a blunder, caused by the influence of bad advisers, for the president to make his present trip and fail to visit Lincoln's tomb. "I should think," said he, "that Cleveland would especially want to go to the monument, and there with uncovered head pay his respects to the memory of the great and noble martyr here." The general intimated that he had personally indicated the importance of this in a letter to Col. Lamont, and that others had done the same, but that no attention seems to have been paid to it. A visit to the resting-place of Lincoln he viewed as a patriotic requirement of the president's journey. Even in a political sense, if politics was the purpose of the trip, it ought not to have been neglected. "A visit to the tomb," said he, "and a few timely and appropriate remarks would have been worth 5,000 votes to the democrats in Illinois."

AMONG THE BADGERS.
President and Mrs. Cleveland Review the Troops at Camp Sheridan.

And Depart for Milwaukee at Nine o'clock to Make a Visit With the Badgers.

Schilling and Leib Admitted to Seats in the Minneapolis Labor Convention.

AMONG THE BADGERS.
(Special to the Gazette.)
CHICAGO, October 5.—President and Mrs. Cleveland left Chicago for Milwaukee at nine o'clock this morning, after a pleasant visit to Camp Sheridan, where the president witnessed a grand review of the troops.

THEY GET IN.
(Special to the Gazette.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 6.—The Knights of Labor convention in this city went into executive session this morning. Schilling and Leib, of Chicago, were admitted to seats in the convention. Editor Buchanan was barred out.

William Waik, a young man well connected in Freeport, Ill., left that place a few days ago for the West. Monday his body was found hanging to a tree near Waterloo, Ia. He is believed to have committed suicide, but there does not appear to be any cause for the act.

LESS DRINKING.
A Noticeable Decrease of Intemperance in the United States Army.
Washington, Oct. 6.—In celebration of the Chicago audience at the dismissal of Captain Gray as to the great amount of drunkenness in the army, a prominent officer of the Judge Advocate-General's office, who has statistics at hand, says, and quotes the reports on court-martial offenses to prove it, that there has been a large decrease yearly in intemperance in both the rank and file of the army since the war. From the returns made thus far received, which will form the basis of the Acting Judge Advocate-General's annual report, it appears that the last fiscal year was no exception to the rule—in fact, the percentage of decrease, especially in the cavalry, is much larger than for several years past. These good results he attributes to the restrictions upon soldiers at army posts, and to the good work being done by temperance advocates throughout the country.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Contesting Delegations Wrangling Over Seats in the Convention.

LITTLE BUSINESS YET TRANSACTED.

Michael Davitt Makes His Appearance and Talks on Irish Affairs—Resolutions of Sympathy with His Countrymen Adopted.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 6.—The General Assembly of the Knights of Labor met at 9:15 yesterday morning, Mr. Towler in the chair. The struggle over seats was renewed and was continued for some time, but without result.

During the morning Michael Davitt, who arrived Tuesday night, addressed the assembly at some length, referring to the struggle of the Irish for home rule and expressing the belief that the sympathies of the working-men of America were with the people of Ireland. Continuing, he said:

"The desire of a better social condition is the chief problem of modern statesmanship. This is an international struggle. Emigration in modern conditions would be right, but in Ireland an emigrant necessarily exists for the reverse. No country is more in need of the laborer forced away from it. For thousands of acres are lying idle, and the other side of the laborer reaches your shores it is impoverished. It seeks employment in your Eastern cities and competes with you. Thus it conflicts with your working classes. Wild foreign emigration is killing two birds with one stone—she is robbing herself of the chief element and reducing American workingmen to her level of wages. The ruling classes are endeavoring to make the English workingmen emigrate, too. The workers claim that the idle and despoiling classes should go. [Applause.] A hereditary aristocracy is an enormous evil that must be swept away. A victory against Ireland would aid the backs of the enemies of labor everywhere. A victory for the poor of Ireland would help the working classes everywhere."

At the conclusion of Mr. Davitt's speech Mr. Powderly introduced resolutions, which were received with enthusiasm, expressing hearty sympathy for the Irish people and condemning the oppressive laws by which Ireland is governed and the coercive acts of the English Government. They were adopted. The time of the afternoon session, from 2 until 4:30 o'clock, was taken up with the case of John Buchanan, of District Assembly of Denver, who was finally refused admission on the ground that he, as a member of a suspended local assembly, was a suspended member of the order.

A few more cases will be taken up this morning, but they will be speedily disposed of, and the convention will have its business well under way before night. There is little doubt but that the convention will last from two to three weeks. Michael Davitt had a long interview with General Master-Workman Powderly and it is believed that the further extension of the order in Europe was discussed. The order has made rapid progress in Belgium among the glass workers, and its extension in England and the education of the working-men there would directly tend to benefit their brethren in Ireland.

STAGE ROBBERS IN NEW MEXICO.
The Treasurer and Mail of the Holbrook and Fort Apache Express Company Captured.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 6.—On Monday, October 3, at noon, the coach of the Holbrook and Fort Apache Express Company was held up and robbed by masked men near the forks of the road station, about twenty-five miles this side of the military post. The driver, when brought to a standstill, was ordered to throw off the treasure chest and the company and the mail. The mail contained a large amount of money remittances from the post quartermaster and commissary to department headquarters, besides the quarterly remittance from the postmaster of the department and also his surplus on money order account.

Reception to Irish Nationals.
New York, Oct. 6.—The reception to Sir Thomas Henry Gratton Esmond, M. P., at the Cooper Union last evening was attended by fully 5,000 persons. Many well-known Irish-Americans and several Catholic priests occupied seats on the platform. Charles A. Dana presided, and spoke briefly. Judge Noah Davis also made a few remarks, and read a series of resolutions expressing sympathy with and promising aid to the home-rule cause. He was warmly greeted. Sir Thomas described the situation in Ireland and expressed full confidence in the ultimate success of home rule. Mr. O'Connor spoke in the same strain.

Heavy Transfer of Standing Pine.
EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Oct. 6.—Another heavy transfer of standing pine, located north of here, formerly the property of Charles Bros. of East Suring, Mich., has just been made to the Chicago Lumber & Boom Company, for the consideration of $175,000. The transaction is the heaviest of the kind that has been consummated along the Chippewa waters for many years.

Funeral of Mrs. Alamo.
PARIS, Oct. 6.—Mlle. Alamo Tranchesi, known to the world as Alamo, was buried yesterday at Aubert. There were very few mourners. Alamo was able to walk about until last Thursday. On Friday she underwent a surgical operation for ovarian tumor. On Saturday she was found dead, and her body grew worse until Sunday, when she died.

Sensational Tragedy.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 6.—Upon being found guilty of grand larceny in court Wednesday morning, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, Sam Brown, a local resident, was found to be "trembling" at the same time thrusting a knife into his throat. He died in half an hour.

Losses by Fire.
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The fire losses for September were $7,157,000, against $6,600,000 during the same month last year. The aggregate losses for the first nine months of 1887 are $33,153,500—$10,000,000 greater than for the same period of 1886.

American Capital Barred Out of China.
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—A dispatch from London says the British Government has received advice that the Treasury, in Hong Kong, has notified Chinese authorities that they can not carry out the proposed arrangement with American capitalists.

Heavy Tobacco Sales.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 6.—The supposed representative of St. Louis firm purchased here Tuesday 782 hogsheads of tobacco for $210,000. The day's total sales reached 1,874 hogsheads, beating all previous records for one day.

Iowa's Democratic Campaign Opened.
DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 6.—The Democratic campaign was inaugurated in Iowa by Major T. J. Anderson, candidate for Governor, before a large audience at his home in Knoxville last evening.

LOSS OF THE CALIFORNIA.

Boodies of Her Victims Washed Ashore—Tuglows Charges Against Seamen—Other Details.

MACRAW, Mich., Oct. 6.—The bodies of the victims of the ill-fated California were brought here last night. Six of them came ashore during the night seven miles above here, and another came ashore near MacGulph's point. The following is an accurate list of the victims:

Miss Minnie Wemba, a passenger; C. Conner, a passenger; George Foster, William Carr, Edward Smith, Arthur Frazier, Robert Grant, Ella Pappa, Xavier Daut. It is claimed that if Captain Towler had been supported by his first officer and the rest of the crew there would have been no loss of life. It has been said that only one boat could be lowered, but there were two such was not the case. There were two boats lowered. The first which should have taken the women, was taken possession of by the first mate and two of the crew, while the captain was in the cabin after the passengers. When he returned to the deck they were gone, and the passengers and the remainder of the crew were left to their fate.

Captain Towler remained on the deck of his steamer until it sank under him, and over them, with the assistance of his leave engineer, who had manfully stood by him, succeeded in clearing a boat from the wreck and rescued the only passenger that was saved and was rescued. The Nebraska, which carried the rest of the crew, was reported the storm a wreck. The Nebraska was near the coast shore when the storm struck her, and was with great difficulty that she reached the west shore without sinking.

Ensign Pa., Oct. 6.—The Henry W. Hoag was reported in distress at Kipley Sunday night, and was at the point in the morning. After a three hours' hard battle with the waves the endangered seamen were rescued and brought to Erie.

Marquette, Wis., Oct. 6.—The Michigan is probably lost with all on board—Captain Charles Knudson, Edward and Martin Mathiason and a sailor named Knudson. She left Marquette, Mich., last Sunday, and has not been heard from since the sale of last Sunday.

MANISTEE, Mich., Oct. 6.—The schooner Jesse Smith, laden with 20,000 bushels of corn from Chicago, bound for Toronto, sank in eight miles north of Manistee, Captain Roberts and the crew reached here in safety.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 6.—During the recent high wind the water in the canal and bay was lowered seven feet below the usual stage and vessels were unable to come either in or out. Tuesday night a large tug was towed up the canal and was swept up the bay during considerable damage to the logs was swept from its moorings and hurried with terrific force against the pier of the Pennsylvania railroad yard, carrying away a section of the pier. The structure which was built upon piling. The pier was for thirty feet minutes. It came without warning and the disturbance subsided as quickly as it came. The logs composing the raft and pieces of the wrecked spans of the bridge are strewn along the river banks for miles above the city.

ALIEN LANDLORDS.
No Definite Information Received at Washington Regarding the Alleged Elections in Iowa.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The General Land Office is without definite information regarding the alleged elections in Iowa by alien land-holders. A letter from Dr. H. M. Hamilton, physician at the Wisconsin Agency in Nebraska, is the only source of information. It seems that certain persons had no right to certain lands which had been sold to the Government. The lands were derived from the general land sold out by it at first, and granted on the lands with the intention of securing the title to the lands. The lands were sold to certain foreign corporations, the agents of which have been trying for some time to gain possession. A few of the settlers refused to leave and judicial process was set on foot to evict them. Of course they have to leave their improvements on the land, and here was where the brutality came in.

Funeral Services of John B. Finch.
BOSTON, Oct. 6.—Services over the remains of John B. Finch, the prominent temperance reformer, who died suddenly from heart disease, took place yesterday. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Hamilton, of the People's Church, and many people connected with the work of Finch were present. The remains were shipped to Evanston, Ill., for burial.

Drink and Death.
FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 6.—John Jones, employed on the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad as a freight brakeman, attempted to shoot his wife yesterday afternoon, firing at her twice. He then ran out of the house on to Wallace street, and when in front of the Seventh Ward engine-house he killed his neighbor by the name of Smith, himself, death resulting instantly. He had been on a drunken debauch for two weeks.

A Building Barred by Women.
MADRID, Oct. 6.—Several thousand women sign-makers gathered at one of the factories yesterday and engaged in a riot. The civil guards surrounded the factory, but the women were so numerous that they were barricaded in. They still hold the building.

A Mill in Ashes.
CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 6.—Douglas & Stuart's great oat-meal mill was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday. The conflagration was caused by an explosion in the elevator leg, probably due to friction. The loss will reach $110,000; insured for $75,000.

A Bloody Riot in Russia.
MOSCOW, Oct. 6.—The workmen in a cotton-mill at Rila raised a riot yesterday and fired the factory, which has been closed since the riot. Several persons were killed. Troops have been sent to restore order. The cause of the riot is not stated.

The Charming Wins the Race.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—The ship Charming, which left New York in May on an ocean voyage, was reported to have arrived here yesterday morning, making the trip in 145 days. Nothing has been heard of the Somali role.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. W. VANCE, M. D.
DURING THE past five years Dr. Vance has devoted his attention to the treatment of Diseases of the Rectum
He is meeting with success in all diseases that are curable. Some patients neglect to have treatment until it is too late. His treatment is almost painless, and does not prevent the patient from doing ordinary work. Patients improve from the first treatment. The doctor may be consulted at the Myers House, on October 7th and 12th. All who are troubled with any form of this, etc., should call upon him.

OFFICE ALICE COON, ATTY AT LAW
In this interest of suffering humanity, I am prompted to say that I have been afflicted with an acute form of Piles for more than thirty years, having advised by the most eminent authorities, and having tried every remedy, I placed myself under the treatment of Dr. Vance, of Janesville, Wis. My advice to all who are afflicted with this disease is to call upon him. He will cure you.

Visitors—The President Makes a Speech—Two Receptions.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—The President's trip from St. Louis to this city was uneventful.
Crowds thronged the depot platforms of the towns along the Chicago & Alton road through which the train passed after daybreak. At Chicago, the President was met by a large number of citizens, and the train stopped for a few minutes. The President appeared on the rear platform of his coach, and was warmly greeted by the crowd. He was then escorted to the Hotel Hamilton, where he was met by Governor Oglesby and other officials.
The President remained in the city until Friday morning, when he departed for St. Louis.

BRIEFLETS.

—Prepare to be dazzled by the mail carriers' uniforms.

—The first Florida oranges of the season come in to-day.

—Mrs. E. C. Johnson is seriously ill of intermittent fever.

—Donations are requested for to-morrow night's W. O. T. U. oyster supper.

—Cleveland will never know how much he missed by failing to see Milwaukee street.

—To-morrow night Janesville people may eat oysters to their hearts' content.

—A reception at the Way Side Inn.

—The funeral of the late Loren Cheney will be held at eleven o'clock to-morrow morning at the church in Emerald Grove.

—Janesville Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons, assemble in regular semi-monthly convocation this evening at Masonic hall.

—Remember the second annual ball, of Rock Assembly, Knights of Labor, at Apollo hall to-morrow evening. All who attend are assured a pleasant time.

—Captain Keebline's company did not go to Milwaukee. No transportation rates could be made on account of the short time since the notice was given.

—"The pity; pity, 'tis, 'tis true," that it is a difficult matter to satisfy or please the ordinary Janesvillian in the building of any public work. It was ever thus.

—Uncle Thomas Lippin, who has been very sick for a few days, is now gaining strength, and will be out in a few days. This will be good news to his many friends.

—A number of Janesville ladies and gentlemen will visit the state capital to-morrow for the purpose of seeing and shaking hands with President and Mrs. Cleveland.

—Hon. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill entertained a thoroughly congenial company of friends at their home in the third ward last evening. Two guests numbered between sixty-five and seventy.

—One of the Milwaukee street trams, en route on a laborer this morning, fell from the tracks, and the driver and passengers were injured.

—Not one house-owner in twenty has arranged a place for mail. Where no box is provided the letters must be left on the porch as carriers are only allowed to stop at each house a very short time.

—Two or three traveling men came in on the two o'clock train this morning, and wandered around town until almost daylight, looking for a hotel. They were taken in tow by Ed. Smith just in time to keep them from walking to Milton.

—Two crops of raspberries in one year is not bad by any means. At least, Mr. Chase, who lives on the Williams farm, thinks so, and he ought to know, for he is now having a chance to try it. The berries are ripe and very well flavored.

—Charles Anderson received a verdict of three hundred dollars in his damage suit against Robert Lillburn at Elkhorn, Anderson, who is a peddler, based his claims on an assault that he charged Lillburn with having made. J. B. Doe, Jr., and John Menzies appeared for the plaintiff, J. V. Quarles and Smith & Piers being attorneys for the defense.

—A gentleman of an inventive turn residing at Plymouth, Massachusetts, protects his grapes from the attention of the small boy who is fond of other people's grapes by means of a series of galvanic batteries warranted to shock an intruder to within half an inch of his life. Some such inhospitable contrivance as this doubtless will force the fox to the painful conclusion that the grapes are only a sour fruit.

—The placing of some 500 extra incandescent electric lights in different portions of the main exhibition hall, evenly distributing them among the various exhibit exhibits, was a generous act on the part of the Milwaukee Exposition management, but it has made for exhibitors the most attractive and for patrons the most pleasant line of exhibits ever made in that department. The effect at night is most beautiful.

—Fifteen men went from Janesville to Chicago to grasp the president by the hand. They returned with their ambition still unsatisfied. T. T. Croft and O. E. Ransom were the only ones that got anywhere near the center of attraction, and they went because they couldn't help themselves. "When I struck the Palmer (House) corner," said Croft last night, "the crowd beat anything I ever saw. My feet didn't touch the ground for about seventy-five yards, but when I finally did get down I started right home without waiting to see any more."

—Panda Maco Powder in Brunette, Flesh and White Tint, at Prentice & Evanson's.

Excursion Ticket.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company will sell excursion tickets for the Chicago Exposition on the following dates:

Oct. 8, good to return until Oct. 10.

Oct. 11, 12, good to return until October 17.

Oct. 18, good to return until Oct. 17.

Oct. 18, 19, good to return until October 24.

Oct. 22, good to return until Oct. 24th.

For round trip, including admission to exposition, $3.00.

Ladies' doing fancy needle work find nothing equal to Catlin's for keeping the hands smooth.

California Excursion.

Parties desiring to join the California excursion leaving Janesville, Oct. 13th, must secure tickets at once as second car is nearly filled. This will be the last opportunity to secure tickets for a through car as railroad companies will not allow their cars to come east of Missouri river hereafter.

CHAS. A. PORTER, Agent.

No man's case is complete without Catlin's. If the finger nails are brittle a few applications will make them soft and pliable and will prevent the growth of hangnails.

ARRANGING THE WORK.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union Planning for Another Year.

Local Reports and the Election of Officers Take Up Most of the Day.

The Rock County W. O. T. U. are still in session at the Congregational church. To-day most of the time was taken up by reports of local committees, reports of officers and the reading of papers. Many of these papers possessed great merit and were listened to with unusual interest.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was set for two o'clock this afternoon. Following that was "Chalk and talk" by Miss Eva Grubbs and a general programme of special interest to those belonging to the Union.

The officers elected were: President—Mrs. L. S. Wilcox, Clinton. Recording Secretary—Mrs. H. A. Williams, Janesville.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Westby.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. H. Kinney.

Board of Directors—Mrs. E. A. Clarke, Milton; Mrs. L. S. Wilcox, Clinton; Mrs. Westby; Mrs. O. A. Osborne, North Johnston; Mrs. E. E. Pratt, Evansville; and Mrs. J. O. Cook, Mrs. J. T. Wright, Mrs. J. H. Kinney and Mrs. H. A. Williams, of Janesville.

A notable feature of last evening's meeting was the paper read by Miss Amy Kellogg, president of the W. O. T. U. in this state. The paper was a plea for the advancement of the temperance cause all along the line and was decidedly able.

ABOUT MEN'S CLOTHING.

What a Local Tailor Thinks of Masculine Taste.

One of the prominent west-side cutters was talking the other day about the changes in fashion.

"But by the way," he said in conclusion, "it is not every body who knows how to wear good clothes when he gets them. Take, for instance, two well formed and good looking men and place them in separate rooms; give to each a suit of the same material, make and style, with hats, gloves, shirts, collars, cuffs, ties, jewelry, boots and cane alike, and let them dress themselves to the best of their ability. When they come out one will appear to be poorly and the other to be well dressed. One will seem to wear his garments as a necessity and to be out of place in them, while the other will wear them that they seem a part of himself."

THE BATTERED LEADERS OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Mr. Geo. W. Shook is in the city, stopping at 102 South Jackson street, canvassing for subscribers to "The Century's War Book—Battles and Leaders of the Civil War," being the republication in permanent book form of a complete history of the war, written by the most distinguished participants on both sides, which have appeared or are now appearing in the Century Magazine, and with additional pictures and text not printed in the magazine. The unpublished papers, forming at least a third of the entire work, will be found not less interesting than those already printed. Some are accounts of battles by prominent generals for which space could not be found in the crowded pages of the Century Magazine; others are side-light thrown on the scenes which have already passed under the eye of the readers of the magazine. The editorial management of "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" will be in the hands of Robert U. Johnson and Clarence C. Buel, of the editorial staff of the Century Magazine, under whose especial charge the war articles have been managed.

The events narrated will be placed, so far as practicable, in chronological order, connecting chapters will be written, and the fullest and most authoritative statistics will be given, with the aim of making it virtually a well rounded and a popular record of the war.

The history of the late civil war should be familiar to every one—it is a constant topic of conversation. An accurate record of it should be in every household. Every child should read the story, not only for the information so necessary to the education of every American, but for the inspiration to be drawn from its record of noble deeds.

General Sherman gives the work his highest praise. He says: "I certainly commend the Century Magazine for its enterprise in collecting in a durable form, many of these episodes, all varying more or less in describing the same event or series of events, according to the tone and temper of the writer. The more valuable by reason of their variance, because every honest man sees things from a different standpoint, and can only write earnestly what he personally believes. It is a valuable record of the war, and should be in every family. It sold by subscription only, 50 cents a number. Mr. Shook is now canvassing the city, explaining the work to those desiring to possess it.

Stop that coughing, if you do not it may kill you. A bottle of Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup only costs you 35 cents and its timely use may save your life.

That always been much annoyed by neuralgia and headache. At length I determined to try Salsaparilla. It has been recommended to me as it is a perfect cure in my case.

MARIE NEW, 62 Algonquin St., Baltimore, Md.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 49 degrees above zero. Cloudy, with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 60 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 42 and 74 degrees above zero.

—The Sons of Veterans, Kilpatrick Camp No. 13, Division of Wisconsin, will give a social dance at the G. A. R. hall Friday evening, Oct. 7. Members of the Grand Army and their families are cordially invited to attend.

THE HORTICULTURISTS.

Annual Meeting of the Janesville Society Last Evening.

Election of Officers and the Important Business Considered.

The members of the Janesville Horticultural society assembled in annual meeting at the office of the secretary, Mr. E. B. Hammett, last evening, at which the following business of a public nature was considered:

The secretary was directed to offer the following resolution at the annual meeting of the Rock County Agricultural Society:

Resolved, That the Rock County Agricultural Society be requested to allow the Janesville Horticultural Society the use of the horticultural department of the fair of 1888, the appointment of superintendent to said department and revision of the premium list, subject to the approval of the agricultural society.

The report of the treasurer showed that there is now over one hundred dollars in the treasury.

The bills of George J. Kellogg, for expenses as delegate to the meeting of the State Horticultural society, amounting to $2.02; and on by E. B. Hammett for postage and stationery, of $2.35, were allowed and ordered paid.

Reports of delegates to the July meeting at Baraboo and Wausau were read and ordered placed on file.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—George J. Kellogg.

Vice President—James Helms.

Secretary—E. B. Hammett.

Treasurer—Dr. J. B. Watling.

Board of Trustees—D. E. Field, Dr. O. Robinson, I. C. Sloan, B. Spence, Mr. J. Kellogg was elected a delegate to attend horticultural meetings for the ensuing year.

It was also decided that all persons making entries in the horticultural department at the fair next year and paying the entry fee to the Rock County Agricultural Society should be considered annual members of the Horticultural Society.

After a little informal talk the meeting adjourned.
